Quality Tells.

Goods that are the best are the only kind we handle, because they are bound to please the palate and give entire satisfaction to the consumer. Nature has lent us life at interest, like money, and has no fixed day for its payment, for it is short, but the memory of a well-fed life is eternal.

BANK STATEMENT DISREGARDED. The bank statement, which was unfavorable, was disregarded. The business in bonds on the Stock Exchange during the week, which was only four full days and to-day's short day, exceeds all previous full week's records, with total sales of a par value approximating $24,000,000, against the previous high record of less than $25,000,000, On Thursday the sales of bonds exceeded in par value $10,000,000, against the best previous day's business of $7,500,000, and on Friday the day's business nearly approached Thursday's record.

In the total number of shares of stock dealt in, the week's record has been many times exceeded, but in the number of different issues in which 100-share lots have been dealt in, the week's record has never been surpassed, thus indicating breadth and uniform interest in the market.

NEW YORK DRY-GOODS MARKET.

NEW YORK, November 12.—There has been a quiet market throughout the day, for both cotton and woollen goods. Printers and converters are buying lightweight fine brown cottons fairly, but other brown goods are in quite moderate request. Shirting prints are selling fairly at the new prices. Staple ginghams were firm, and Lancaster staples advanced to 5c, per yard. Bleached cottons continue inactive, without change in prices. Coarse colored goods were dull and generally easy to buy. Business in all lines of woollens is indifferent, and the market is without new feature of any moment.

NEW YORK, November 12.- The cotton

NEW YORK, November 12.—The cotton market opened quiet, with prices unchanged to 1 point lower, and ruled exceptionally duil and featureless during the forepart of the session, with prices confined to a range of 2 points. Liverpool cables were about as expected, the crop movement no more than filled conservative estimates, and orders were few and far between, thus leaving room traders purposeless for the most part. Several houses were seen to be closing out their accounts quietly, seeing nothing in the general situation to inspire confidence. At best, it was a dull, holiday market. The late market was slightly feverish, but prices continued to follow a narrow channel. The close was steady at net unchanged prices.
